Introduction

COMPANY BACKGROUND.

Founded in 2002 by Raymond Williams and Edith and Jim Holmes, Durham Marble and Ceramic Tiles Ltd has expanded rapidly from originally only having 2 members of staff to currently employing 30 full time tilers and 8 office staff

We offer our tiling services to the general public and to the construction industry. We are capable of providing our services from our base in Unit 4a King's Court Jarrow South Tyneside and we will travel through out the country.

Our dedication and Quality Service has brought about our expansion, and it has been carefully controlled to ensure that no reduction in our commitment to total customer-focused business operations occurred.

Why learn a trade?

Coming to Durham Marble and Ceramic Tiles Ltd for your training as a tiling professional means that you will be receiving tuition from a leading brand of professional tilers.

We will always aim to pass on our expertise and experiences to every trainee that shows a genuine interest and any student committed to learning.

Learning a trade can be a life affirming and life changing experience offering you the opportunity to become your own boss, start your own company or work for a tiling company fulltime.

Demand for properly trained and qualified tilers increases year on year as older tilers retire, there are never enough apprentices coming through colleges to replace them. With quality standards being up most in our training you will receive industry recognised training and experience that will stand you in good stead for a career in tiling. With on site experience a possibility you may even be given the chance to become a member of our very own tiling teams.
